

Hutto Chief of Police

Located in Williamson County, Hutto is known for its small-town charm, quality schools and expanding retail opportunities. A unique place with friendly and diverse residents, many of whom have lived in Hutto for less than 10 years, it is also a great place to raise a family. Hutto's population has increased over 1,250% since 2000 and it is situated in one of the fastest growing areas in the U.S. Located on the SH130 Corridor and along US Hwy. 79, it is less than 30 minutes from downtown Austin.

The annual operating budget for the Hutto Police Department is $2.9 million and includes the divisions of patrol, criminal investigations, animal control, and school resource officers. The department consists of 26 highly respected sworn officers. The officers of the Hutto Police Department maintain a strong relationship with local law enforcement agencies, community leaders and the residents of Hutto.

Hutto's next Chief of Police must possess the following qualifications and characteristics:

- experience as a patrol officer
- a reputation of high personal and professional integrity, administrative courage and experience with a growing community
- a servant leader who believes in employee-empowered decisions and is supportive of employees.
- articulate, politically astute, and a person of action with a good reputation for developing new leaders
- demonstration of genuine desire to lead the department through the future changes of growth
- reputation of developing a high level of trust with patrol officers and a good track record of working effectively with the City Manager and the community is important

It is preferable that the next chief have experience as a police chief in Texas, successful experience with state/federal grants as well as a graduate of the FBI National Academy.

Annual salary range is $91,566 to $104,647 per year.

A City of Hutto application for employment is required and must be submitted to Human Resources by 5 p.m. on Friday, June 6, 2014. Application for employment and job description may be found online at www.huttotx.gov